NEW ENCANA BOMB THREAT

More details to the recent bomb threat sent to EnCana have been released. The RCMP have confirmed they are now in possession of yet another threat letter to EnCana. RCMP Spokesperson Sergeant Rob Vermeulen say the letter was sent to Dawson Creek Daily news sometime on Wednesday. The letter sent on Wednesday is type-written, and not hand-written like the past two authentic letters that were sent to the news outlet. It's postmarked from Whitecourt, Alberta, and it says "This note doesn't contain any DNA so don't look for it and don't waste the taxpayer's money." The Letter also claims EnCana had enough time to reconsider its actions, but it instead chose to push, harass and intimidate people. RCMP are asking that you contact your nearest detachment if you have any information regarding the latest threat.
