THE BC PEE WEE TIER 4 2011 CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Chetwynd PeeWee Rep Giants received a huge home town cheer as they entered the ice during Opening Ceremonies.

"The BC Pee Wee Tier 4 2011 Championships opened on Saturday, March 19 with a banquet for all the teams. The players and coaches were welcomed by John Kearns, MC, and well fed by Simply Perfect Catering. Mohawks and team spirit were paraded about the room and prizes were won by each team in good fun. Serious business began Sunday morning, though, with the round robin games kicking off early. A huge home town crowd attended all of the Chetwynd games and cheered the kids on. Chetwynd finished round robin play with 1 win and 2 losses. Dawson Creek and Grand Forks battled for 3rd & 4th on Wednesday. Grand Forks pulled out the victory in OT. The Championship game was a fierce face off between Burns Lake & Kelowna. It was a tight game through & through and also ended up in OT. The score was still tied so a second OT was played and Burns Lake scored 5 min. into it. What a thrilling end to an awesome tournament. Kelowna said it best as they skated a lap after the final game with a sign that said "THANK YOU, CHETWYND!!!"

A Word With Your Creator

72. DID THE REPENTANT THIEF GO TO HEAVEN?

One of the most popular passages of Scripture which is quite often used to prove man is immortal and that he goes to his reward at death is the scriptural account of the repentant thief on the cross. "And he said unto Jesus, LORD, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom. And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise." Luke 23:42, 43.

1. Did Jesus promise the repentant thief he would go to heaven on the day of his crucifixion?

"As written originally the Greek was without any punctuation. The adverb today is between two clauses which in the Greek read "truly to you I say" and "with me you will be in the paradise." According to Greek usage the adverb could modify either clause. So the question is, what did Jesus mean to say? Did Christ promise the thief he would be with Him that day in paradise, or did He simply tell him that that day He was giving him the assurance of salvation? The only way to know what Jesus meant is to understand the Bible answers to the remaining questions in this particular study.

It is well known that there is no punctuation in the earliest preserved Greek manuscripts of the New Testament. Punctuation is said to have been introduced by Manutius, a printer, who lived in Venice in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries. Therefore the Bible punctuation is human and variable. It is entirely possible to change the meaning of a passage of Scripture by the position of a comma.

2. Where is paradise?

In the New Testament the term paradise occurs only in Luke 23:43; 2 Corinthians 12:4; Revelation 2:7. Paul, in 2 Corinthians 12:2-4, makes paradise synonymous with heaven. The tree of life mentioned in Revelation 2:7 is said to be "in the midst of the paradise of God." And in Revelation 21:1-3, 10; 22:1-5 the tree of life is associated with the new earth, the New Jerusalem, the river of life, and the throne of God. It is evident that in the New Testament the usage of paradise is consistently synonymous with heaven.

3. Where did Christ go on the crucifixion day?

"This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid." Luke 23:52, 53.

4. Did Christ go to His Father in heaven the day He died?

No, for three days later after His resurrection Jesus said to Mary, "Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God." John 20:17.

5. What did Jesus teach about the time when men would enter into their reward in paradise?

Less than twenty -four hours before making this promise to the thief Jesus had given to His disciples the promise recorded in John 14:1-3. He had talked about the mansions in his Father's house and the time when He would come for them to receive His own unto Himself. Read Matthew 16:27; 25:31, 34.

Conclusion:

To say that the thief went to heaven on the crucifixion day and to use this to support the immortality of man depends upon the wrong use of a comma. This is not a right way to interpret the Bible to make this text the foundation of a doctrine which contradicts all other plain scriptures on that subject.

There is only one way to have eternal life after the resurrection and live forever. "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." John 3:36. The resurrection of Christ makes certain that a person who is in Christ will be given eternal life. Read 1 Corinthians 15:16-22.

Goliath beetles (Goliathus) are the largest insects in terms of bulk and weight. They can reach over 4 inches long, which doesn't sound like much, til you look at the picture. The beetles are native to the African tropics, where they subsist on tree sap and fruit. Goliath beetles can be kept as pets, just feed them dog food (but don't expect them to come when called).

ADOPT A DOG

The District of Chetwynd Animal Control department is offering stray dogs for adoption.

Please pick up an application form at the District Office. Monday to Friday 8 am to 4:30 pm.

The District does not promise to provide a dog that meets your specific wishes but we do expect to offer a dog that you will like. Please consider this option for the care and protection of innocent animals.

While getting a checkup, a man tells his doctor that he thinks his wife is losing her hearing. The doctor says, "You should do a simple test. Stand about 15 feet behind your wife and say 'honey? Move 3 feet closer and do it again. Keep moving 3 feet closer until she finally responds. Remember how close you were when she gives you an answer. That will help me know how bad her hearing loss is'".

About a month later the man is seeing the doctor again and the doctor asks, "Well, did you do that experiment with your wife's hearing?" The man says "Yes". "How close did you get before she answered?" "Well, by the time I got about 3 feet away she just turned around and said, "For the FIFTH TIME... WHAT???"

A new business was opening, and one of the owners friends sent flowers for the occasion. But when the owner read the card with the flowers, it said, 'Rest in Peace'. The owner was a little upset and called the florist to complain. After he had told the florist about the obvious mistake, the florist said, "Sir, I'm really sorry for the mistake, but rather than getting angry, you should imagine this: somewhere there is a funeral taking place, and they have flowers with a note that says, 'Congratulations on your new location.'
